8.2	District Councillors D.Cllr. Dicker informed the meeting that street parking in Bury St. Edmunds has increased, Angel Hill charges are £2 for 30 minutes. Greene King will allow free car parking at the weekends in the run up to Christmas, there is also free parking available at the Olding Road car park at the weekends.

	Enforcement officers can start fining drivers who are persistently idling. Locality budget is available for the Platinum Jubilee and other local groups. Noted 8.3 Police Newsletter The newsletter was circulated to members. Noted 8.4 Mildenhall/Red Lodge Rugby – contract renewal The chairman of the Mildenhall/Red Lodge Rugby complained about the lack of hot water at the weekend for the rugby players to shower, this poses the risk of potential fines for the club of up to £1000. The club have experienced several mis-communications over the past 18 months. They have encountered issues regarding space and equipment left out following changeover from Lightwave’s hire at the weekend. Lightwave have been moving their equipment towards the walls as initially agreed. The Chairman of the parish council will amend the contract for the rugby club to reflect that the liability of damage to any equipment left by other hirers will be negated for Mildenhall/Red Lodge Rugby Club. A draft copy will be issued to the rugby club to consider. The chairman will also contact Lightwave to discuss this agreement. The possibility of allowing rugby to reset the heating if required will be investigated. The rugby club were advised to contact the council if there are any persistent issues that remain unresolved. Noted 8.5 Update on Sunnica A meeting was held with MP Matt Hancock at the Red Lodge Sports Pavilion regarding Sunnica. In order to have the option to raise any issues on the proposal, individuals will need to register an interest to the planning inspectorate once the date has been confirmed to do so. Members agreed that this information will need to be relayed to Red Lodge residents. Facebook will be used to post information. Noted 8.6 Update on the Events Working Party To gauge the level of interest for public participation in a procession for the Platinum Jubilee in Red Lodge, the Events Working Party agreed to inform the village and surrounding businesses of the event. The Red Lodge Sports Pavilion and The Red Lodge Millennium Centre will notify known clubs and groups. Application for the road closures needs submitting to Highways by February 2022.
